We learn that Zœckler is in Davenport, Iowa.

We are sorry to note that young Wm.

McKay Hoge, formerly of this city, is showing up very badly in the Bruner fraud trial now going on at Nashville. He has turned State's evidence and acknowledged to having issued false vouchers to a large amount. The other parties accused charge that Hoge is testifying falsely, in order to convict them and save himself from pusishment, after having attempted extortion and falled.

Attempt at Burglary.—On Friday night last an attempt at burglary was made at the grocery store of T. & W. Colvin, on Market Square. About 1 o'clock at night a man who sleeps in the store open, and saw one of them climb up and look in through the window over the door, after which a second attempt was made to force the door open, which as soon heard the thieves trying to pry the door of the store open, and saw one of them climb up and look in through the window over the door, after which a second attempt was made to force the door open, when the same of them climb up and look in through the window over the door, after which a second attempt was made to force the door open, when the same of them climb up and look in through the window over the door, after which a second attempt was made to force the door open, when the same than the manner in which the Radical Convention which assembled in the mount of February.

They then immediately changed their base of operations. There were two of them.

TRIED TO ESCAPE.—Several individuals who had not conducted themselves us the law directs were arrested on Saturday aftermoon and committed to Jall, and while some two or three were being marched into "durance vile" ope of the prisoners thought he discovered a fine chance to make good his escape, and like a voung deer he started off. The bugle sounded a general "charge" of the police cavalry, and a "right smart" race ensued, and the deserter was recaptured and brought back to jail, his police friends whistling the "rogue's march."

Took Him at His Wonn.—Yesterday we attended church with a friend (we go every Sunday) and listened to a very interesting discourse.
